FuturePlus appoints General Manager Operations

Sydney, 11 October 2011: FuturePlus Financial Services (FuturePlus) has announced the appointment of Hayden King as General Manager Operations, further strengthening its management team as it builds its offering as a third party administrator for superannuation funds.

In the newly created role, which was established as part of FuturePlus' recent restructure, Mr King will be responsible for delivering industry-competitive administration services to FuturePlus' clients. A primary focus of the role will be to further improve the client and member experience.

Madeline Dermatossian, Managing Director of FuturePlus Financial Services welcomed Mr King to the new role.

"Hayden has been an active member of the Australian financial services industry for the past 25 years and we're thrilled to welcome someone of his calibre to the FuturePlus team. He brings with him a high level of understanding of the technical requirements and regulatory frameworks needed to improve the efficiency of investment and superannuation administration," Ms Dermatossian said.

"Hayden's past success in the development and alignment of people, products, processes and systems will be a key attribute as FuturePlus develops our offering as a third party administrator of super funds," concluded Ms Dermatossian.

As the General Manager Operations, Mr King will oversee the Administration, Financial Planning & Paraplanning divisions and the Program Delivery Office within FuturePlus.

Mr King has over 25 years experience in the financial services industry with leading banking and wealth management organisations including MLC, Colonial First State, Challenger Financial Services and Macquarie Bank. The majority of this time has been spent in senior management and executive roles, leading teams responsible for operations, client service, business systems and project management supporting a broad range of banking, investment and superannuation products.

Mr King will start his new role on Monday 31 October 2011.
